

Master's Degree at the University of Pisa

Pre-enrolment for the 3rd edition of the 1st and 2nd-level Master in Analysis, Prevention and Fight against organised crime and corruption at the University of Pisa is open.

The participation is open to both Italian and foreign students and graduates, as well as public officers; it is also possible to register as auditors, and to follow the Master online on a dedicated e-learning portal.

The lessons will be held in Italian, but the learning material will be multilingual (especially English.)
