Re: PhD Fellowship ("Young Researcher" position) at University of Primorska, Slovenia

University of Primorska announces one "Young researcher" position in Mathematics under the supervision of Prof. Dragan Marušič. Applicants should have a B.Sc. or equivalent training in Mathematics (by September 30, 2011), and are expected to enrol in the PhD program. Preferred research fields are Algebra and Discrete Mathematics. This position is for 3 and 1/2 years and includes a tuition fee waiver. It may be thought as a Research Assistantship, the holder is expected to complete his/her PhD training in up to 4 years.

The deadline for applications is August 11, 2011. Applicants should send a letter of interest, vita and two recommendation letters to the following e-mails: martinam.kos@upr.si or mojca.sanabor@upr.si.

In case of interest you will receive additional information for formal application.
